

Power BI -> Microsoft

ETL : Extract – PULL DATA from data source: excel, csv, text, dataset file

Transform – data processing, data cleaning

Load : for analysis

Analysis : keep facts, insights via dashboards

Load : when your is cleaned

Transformed : when you want to process the data.

Report view : visualization

Table : see the data

Model view : so that we can create relationship among data.

View : It is used to see the null values, duplicates values, and error values by clicking on the column view button

Remove column: It is used to remove the columns of our data set